

Sample Itinerary - 5 Days in Paris

Day 1

Morning: Airport Pickup & Orientation

After a long flight, we will meet you, guide you and start you off with a friendly face. Your personal concierge will be outside baggage claim with croissants and take you to your hotel via private car or via train/taxi through Gare du Nord. Have sights explained along the way or learn the metro system if going by train. Once at your destination, your Concierge will also give you information about the neighborhood.

Afternoon: Take the afternoon to settle into your hotel and rest before activities.

Late Afternoon: Montmartre Walking Tour

Your personal concierge will meet you at your apartment and take you to the top of the Sacré-Coeur for its breath-taking views of Paris. On this private guided tour, you'll see the artists who still gather to sell their wares in the Place Du Tertre and stroll through the cobblestone streets where Van Gogh, Toulouse Lautrec and Picasso painted their famous works. Don't miss La Maison Rose, the Cabaret Lapin Agile, the famous Moulin Rouge and the only working vineyard in Paris. Drop off at Le Coq Rico

Day 2

Morning-Afternoon: Classic Paris Highlights

Take in the beautiful sites of Paris in just a few hours... This four-hour private walking tour brings you to the heart and birthplace of the city. You will get a real feeling for the life and history of Paris, and enjoy the mosaic of neighborhoods for which it is so well-loved. You'll see the lively Latin Quarter, Notre Dame Cathedral, the charming Ile St Louis, the Marais, and time permitting, we'll walk through the beautiful Tuileries Garden, visiting the elegant Place Vendome along the way to the Place De La Concorde.

Evening: Moulin Rouge

The fabulous Le Bal du Moulin Rouge, home of the French Can-Can, will delight you with its shimmering feathery costumes, unique music and dance from international musicians as well as a world famous revue. This is Paris at its finest, and the amazing high-energy show will leave you breathless and entertained. [Price includes meal and ticket, drinks additional.]

Day 3

Morning: Musee du Louvre, Privately Guided Tour

Your concierge will meet you at Angelina (after you indulge in their world famous hot chocolate, served with deliciously unsinkable whipped cream) to begin your tour promptly at 10am. Then, skip the line at the Louvre for a privately guided tour of the museum highlights - the mysterious Mona Lisa, the unforgettable Venus De Milo, and the stunning Winged Victory. Afterwards, stroll through the Tuileries Gardens, crossing the Seine to visit the D'Orsay for highlights of Impressionist Art.

Afternoon: Paris Street Art: An Expression of The People's Politics

Banksy – world famous for his frescoes mixing politics and poetics. Invader – with his popular Rubikcubism mosaics of Pac-man and other video game icons. Shepard Fairey – you may know not know him but do know his Barack Obama “Hope” campaign poster. These are just some of the artists who have memorialized Paris’s everyday culture using its city streets as their canvas... their gift to “the people.” In this private tour two- hour tour with your concierge, you will learn about the symbols and the artists who create them... locate their graphic identity and better understand their message.

Evening: Concert at Sainte-Chapelle

Experience one of the most breathtaking sights in Paris while enjoying a superb performance of classical music. Enjoy Johann Strauss performed by Les Solistes Français chamber orchestra directed by by Paul Rouger, also an acclaimed violin soloist. We recommend indulging in a delicious meal before or after the concert at the brasserie "Les Deux Palais", just steps away from the Sainte-Chapelle.

Day 4

Morning – Early Afternoon: Privately Guided Versailles Tour

Let your concierge show you the meaning of royal elegance at Louis XIV and Marie Antoinette’s magnificent UNESCO World Heritage-listed palace. After the Hall of Mirrors, Grands Appartements and Le Nôtre’s superb Baroque-style Gardens, enjoy a restaurant lunch by the Grand Canal.

Evening: The Paris Jazz Scene: Night Owls

Experience the Paris jazz scene – with a Paris jazz singer – beginning with a conversation between you and your personal concierge and jazz expert to get an understanding of what type of jazz that you'd like to hear. Learn about the history of jazz over a round of drinks and then be enthralled by jazz at a live music venue.

Day 5

Morning: Let There be Cheese, a Private Tasting

Debbi knows a lot about cheese. A self-proclaimed foodie, she's been living in Paris for 20 years and offers a unique opportunity to go with her to her favorite Paris cheese mongers. Together, you'll select 6 (or so) cheeses for a tasting lunch, which she'll host in her apartment in the 16^{ème} arrondissement. In addition to cheese, lunch includes fabulous breads from Desgranges, local charcuterie, a balancing salad, fruit and paired wines... and lively conversation all about the history of French cheeses from the various regions.

Evening: Le Calife, VIP Dinner Cruise

Dine on Le Calife, a 5-star cruising restaurant, through the heart of historical Paris. In a warm and unique setting, view some of the most famous monuments of Paris from the Seine: Notre Dame, The Louvre, Musée d'Orsay, Grand Palais, Les Invalides, and the Eiffel Tower. At sunset, the cruise (which lasts 2 hours) starts at the sound of the "Kromhout", the original twin engine from 1939. The welcoming crew offers a wide range of cocktails to start the party. Then, enjoy either a traditional French menu worthy of the gastronomic reputation of the capital or menus inspired by India, South Africa, Greece, and the Middle East.

Day 6: Depart

Morning: Return to Airport for flight home
